

Lover and Friend©

(David Hampton)

(verse)

Heartbreak's something I have known,
I've been with friends yet felt alone.
In and out of lover's arms,
Sharing secrets until dawn.
A plastic kiss and she goes home.

(verse)

Everything seems strange today,
We think we know just what to say.
But when it comes to making love,
It's performance that we judge,
Compare our scores then slip away.

(verse)

Though solitude seems my best friend,
Illusion won't fool me again.
Life's too short to live it wrong,
Where each moment seems too long.
I'd rather let it all just end,
I need a lover and a friend.

(Music bridge)

(verse)

There's someone for me somewhere,
A woman with a need to share.
Someone with a smile that's real,
and inner peace that I can feel,
Strip all the doubts, lay my soul bare.

(verse)

Though solitude seems my best friend,
Illusion won't fool me again.
Life's too short to live it wrong,
Where each moment seems too long.
I want my heart back on the mend,
I need a lover and a friend.

(music bridge)

I need a lover...I need a friend.
