

Phantom King©

(David Hampton)

(verse)

You stand on the street with a sign in your hand,
You scream at people say'n they don't understand.
The contradictions you spew,
Show your lack of IQ,
As you threaten a phantom king.

(verse)

You say you can do whatever you please,
As you push and shove people aside with ease.
The hate in your heart is raw,
With no respect for the law,
Chanting against a phantom King.

(chorus)

There is only one king to answer to,
There is only one king with the way,
To lift you with love,
To His kingdom above,
And lead you from going astray.

(Music interlude)

(verse)

True freedom was bought with the blood of the strong,
That allows you to speak even when you are wrong.
But you're abusing that right,
When you continue to fight,
Your war against a phantom king.

(chorus)

But there is a King that you should kneel to,
The only King that can lead you today,
To unconditional love,
From His heaven above,
And He's there to show you the way.

Yes, Jesus can show you the way.
